A very comfortable family home located in well established Mijas Golf. This large town house has bright spacious rooms throughout including, on the top floor, a brand new open plan kitchen, lovely lounge with fireplace plus a large bedroom, shower room and great breakfast terrace with Double Glazing. Additionally you have a Double Glazing west facing terrace with panoramic views to the mountains and countryside. The middle floor is where you will find two more very generous en-suite double bedrooms plus both rooms have access to another large west facing terrace which, again, has panoramic views. The bottom floor has your own private garage which has more than enough space for a big vehicle and more room for storage. Bonus features include use of the lovely communal swimming pools, very reasonable running costs and CCTV within the community. The community is of modern construction and offers just outstanding value for money. Viewings are highly recommended!!
