Flat plot of agricultural land with electricity, legal well water, a small existing building and water storage tank. The plot extends to 10,800m² and is completely flat, enjoying beautiful open views across the surrounding countryside towards Alhaurín El Grande and Coín. Electricity is already connected, and the property benefits from a legally registered well and an existing water storage tank, making it particularly well suited to a variety of agricultural uses. There is also a small existing building on the land which comprises of 2 rooms, a shower room and a covered porch. A fantastic opportunity for anyone looking for a productive piece of land in a peaceful rural setting, with excellent access and beautiful views.
