Authentic Andalusian Townhouse in Mijas Pueblo, South-Facing with Sea and Mountain Views Set within a quiet, plant-filled cobbled lane in the heart of Mijas Pueblo, this characterful townhouse blends traditional charm with relaxed village living, moments from the famous Mesta restaurant and a short distance to the plaza. Situated in a prime location, the bright, split-level living room is full of authentic detail: exposed dark wood beams, a traditional brick fireplace, whitewashed walls with arched display niches, and cool marble floors. French doors open the space to a private terrace, and air conditioning keeps it comfortable year round. A separate galley kitchen features classic white cabinetry, dark granite worktops and a compact dining nook, with its own door leading out to a sunny balcony framed by terracotta rooftops and open sea views. Accommodation comprises two double bedrooms, each with its own en-suite bathroom and fitted Andalusian wood wardrobes, plus a separate full bathroom serving the living areas. Ceiling fans, air conditioning and a fireplace cover every season. Outdoor space is a real highlight: A south-facing roof terrace with panoramic views over the village rooftops to the Sierra de Mijas and the Mediterranean A private rear patio with built-in barbecue, dining area and traditional ceramic detailing, ideal for entertaining A dedicated storage unit, plus a rear door opening onto the urbanisation alley with level, step-free access to the community pool just 100 metres away This is a home that captures the essence of Mijas Pueblo: light, character, views and an unbeatable village location. Equally suited as a permanent residence, a second home, or a long-term rental. Early viewing recommended.
