This large house with wonderful panoramic views is perfect for a large family or for renting it out. It is divided into three residential units. When you come through the large entrance gate, you find yourself in the spacious, planted driveway. Here you have space for several cars. In addition, there is a garage. On both sides of the garage are separate apartments with kitchen, bedroom, bathroom and living room. They are ideal for family visits or for renting to guests. The apartments are connected with the upper living area. On the upper floor you have a large living room, a spacious kitchen, two bedrooms, as well as a bathroom and a guest toilet. The rooms are open and nice and bright thanks to the many windows. The house has several terraces. From all of them you have a different, unforgettable view. A staircase leads to the pool, which is beautifully enclosed by cypress trees. On the property you will find lovingly planted trees of all kinds. From exotic fruit trees to palm trees, you will find a great variety. Lemons, mangos, pears, apples, oranges, walnuts, tangerines, and cherries are all present. There are also 25 olive trees and a vineyard with 600 vines. Everywhere you can find decorations and little things that make the house look so wonderfully lived in. The house is perfect for people who love nature and gardening. There are air conditioners, built-in closets, various storage rooms and a barbecue. We look forward to presenting this dream property to you soon in person or via virtual tour. Because this world, it is unique just like our Axarquía. In Andalusia. On the Costa del Sol. Here, on the sunny side of life....
