We present to you this new investment opportunity. This semi-detached house is located in the cozy municipality of Malaga, Canillas de Aceituno. It is divided into three floors. On the ground floor there is currently a successful family business. It is very popular in the community because of its location and importance. You could start your own business. There are already the necessary certifications. However, you could also use it as a residence. It is an unfurnished townhouse, ideal to furnish it according to your taste. The house has three bedrooms and one bathroom. The windows are double glazed and the floors are marble. There is also a large terrace where you can relax and enjoy a good glass of wine. Or you can do your chores there. Of course, the various basic services are covered throughout the building: electricity, water and telephone. We are pleased to be able to present this dream property to you soon, either personally or via virtual viewing. Because this world, it is unique - just like our Axarquía. In Andalusia. On the Costa del Sol. Here, on the sunny side of life...
