In the beautiful village of Canillas De Aceituno, nestled in the foothills of the Sierra Tejada and Almirajara, with its nature reserve, is this property in one of the narrow pretty streets of the village. With fantastic views of the mountains and the white village, although it needs a reform it has a certain charm, which would make it a perfect vacation home or a permanent home. The entrance leads to the living room with a fireplace. Next to it is the kitchen, a bedroom and a guest toilet. The second floor consists of 2 bedrooms and a bathroom. With a little imagination and few means it would be possible to transform this property to take advantage of all the available space, for example, you can build a large terrace, extending the stairs that already exist. The result would be impressive views, as the property is located high above the village. An ideal place to enjoy tranquillity and relaxation. We are pleased to be able to present this dream property to you soon, either personally or via virtual viewing. Because this world, it is unique - just like our Axarquía. In Andalusia. On the Costa del Sol. Here, on the sunny side of life...
